Social Concerns

“As servants of Christ, we will strive to be the presence of Christ to our parish and the wider community, providing counsel, assistance, and hope as we live the Gospel of God through our practice of the Corporal Works of Mercy. We offer our gifts with kindness and respect, enhancing opportunities for fellowship and mutual support, led by Christ’s example of hospitality, diversity and inclusiveness.” Social Concerns Pastoral Secretary: John Cihon jchon@mpwsservices.com or Teresa Golden McClelland teresa-efg@sbcglobal.net

We had a good week for our food collection. 373 lbs. of food was collected along with 206 lbs. of clothing and 37 lbs. of toiletries. That gives us a grand total of 616 lbs. Catholic Charities will be very happy when we deliver to them this week. Thank you all for such dedication and faithfulness to this ministry; It can't happen without you.

Hope Outreach is in need of canned fruit and canned spaghettiOs and ravioli. Please keep them in mind when you shop this week.

Lenten Opportunities for Prayer, Reflection, and Community Growth

Stations of the Cross

Follow the path Jesus walked on his way to the crucifixion. This meditation reflects our own human response in the portrayal of many who are represented in the Via Crucis. Our prayer joins the intense self-sacrifice that Jesus undertook for the salvation of the world. The Stations will be offered in Christ the Servant on the Fridays of Lent at 7:00 pm.

Spiritual Exercises

Join others hoping to “strengthen their core” as we pray and do a workout every Tuesday evening at 7pm and Saturday morning at 7am in Alumni Hall (gym) during Lent.

Appropriate for all ages 8 and up, where the exercises can be adapted to fit your ability.

Sessions will conclude on Tuesday, April 16 and will last approximately one hour. Contact Elise Schafer at 330.714.9087 or eschafer@youngstowndiocese.org

Morning Bible Study

We will be discussing Saint Paul’s Letter to the Romans. Many find this book very difficult to read and it is often misinterpreted. Leader Jim Naegeli will discuss the various interpretations and nuances found in the book and how it is understood considering our Catholic Biblical tradition. All are welcome, on Wednesdays, March 13, 20, 27, and April 3, 10 at 10:00 am. In the Gathering Room.

Communal Penance Service

Wednesday, April 10, 7:00 PM

A Christ Attitude Way of Life

This year there will be two evenings in which we will explore the Beatitudes of the Disciple and the Beatitudes of the Apostle. The evenings will be from 6:30 – 8:30 pm., on Thursday evening April 4 and Thursday evening April 11 in Seton Hall. This year’s reflection will include group discussion and conclude with the sung Chaplet of Divine Mercy in Christ the Servant Church at 8:40 pm. Presenter Msgr. Lew Gaetano.

Formed.org Audio and Video Reflections for Lent:

My Beloved Son – Meditations for Lent

Bishop Robert Barron offers five sermons on the spiritual discipline we must cultivate in the Lenten season, a discipline centered on Christ. These meditations cover topics such as finding our identity in God, prayer as the key to mission, our thirst for God, how to end our alienation from God, and how to embrace the way of happiness joyfully

Forgiven: The Transforming Power of Confession

A small group gathering for those seeking a fuller understanding of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. The five sessions will include: Session 1: Where are you? Have you ever felt lost and alone, isolated in guilt?

Session 2: An Encounter with Mercy. We are not defined by our mistakes. Jesus invites us to encounter his mercy and be healed by his love.

Session 3: Biblical Foundations: Sin, Mercy, and the Sacrament of Confession.

Session 4: Answering Common Questions about Confession: Why do we confess our sins to a priest? Is this sacrament some arbitrary requirement, or does it have an inner logic? Session 5: As Parishioners – Taking the message of mercy out into our families and neighborhoods. Forgiven is accessible through Formed.org
